

I think that New Jersey's Do Not Call law is fantastic. I have personally seen a huge reduction in annoying solicitation calls, especially in the evenings. I urge you not to challenge or attempt to overturn this legislation which has improved my quality of life. Aggressive salepeople will find other ways to make money without ringing my phone during dinner with my family. Thank you for your time.